

BECOME A SINOLUX PARTNER

For decades, Sinolux's top priority has been to provide high exceptional quality products to our customers and industries. By doing this, our manufacturers use the Chinese Pharmacopoeia reference as their guidelines to ensure all our products meets safety and other quality parameters.

We would like to invite you as a Sinolux partner so we can mutually share and benefit from these experiences.

We pride ourselves on being able to support professionals and their business every step of the way. Establishing a long term relationship will allows us to offer you the best chance of being successful by making sure there are always a team of experts behind you. It also allows us to work together through a trusted framework that follows an agreed ethical code of practice.

Sinolux is a recognized voice of the herbal industry and represents it's views to Government, Regulatory Bodies with aim to improving and raising standards. Being a partner you will have an exclusive range of services, supports and the most updated information on currents herbal industry affairs

Sinolux, Your Traditional Chinese Herbs Supplier

To become a Sinolux partner:

- you are an accredited practitioner, and you work regularly with us.

The benefits of partnership:

- priority follow-up by our customer service,
- exclusive access to the MTC consulting service,
- special delivery fees for orders sent to your practice,
- priority registration at our seminars,
- access to online information services (Sinolux Intranet).

10.000 formulas... and more.